

West Goshen

Cornwall, Conn.

Unknown source

West

8/9/34. Hubert J. Hubbell, Goshen, Conn., writes that the only chestnut plantations in this district are located on the Mohawk State Forest in Cornwall.

Take Route 4 westerly from Torrington to West Goshen, turn on second left from West Goshen Post Office on dirt road marked Mohawk State Forest and C.C.C. Camp Journey; 1 1/2 miles on dirt road, past C.C.C. camp to Ranger's headquarters where the plots are located.

West Cornwall, Conn.

Unknown source

Amity(?) Fitzhugh
East Street

gsg (1942) <sup>3/71</sup> reports a tree 350 yds from highway 20' tall, bearing this year

Fairfield Co. Castanea mollissima

Robt. H. Montgomery

Unknown source

Cos Cob, Connecticut.

5 trees or more, received from Willard J. Brydy, Baldwin, N. Y., per letter's letter 11/30/26.