

Answer Sheet Instructions

Completing the Answer Sheet

- Before you begin, remember that you must erase thoroughly if you make any changes on your answer sheet. Completely fill in and darken all answers you have made. Your test cannot be scored properly if your answers are too light or smudged.
- Turn to side one of your answer sheet. You will find a line for your name on the top left corner, and SIDE ONE on the upper right corner.
- On the line for your name, print your last name, first name, exam title, exam version and exam date. All exam information can be found on the front of your test booklet.

- Now turn the answer sheet over and turn the paper lengthwise. On the top left corner you will see boxes for your name. Print one letter in each box, spelling your last name, leave an empty box, your first name, leave an empty box, and your middle initial.
- Next, fill in the circles with the corresponding letters under each box. The top row of empty circles indicates the spaces between your last name, first name and middle initial.
- Finally, find the boxes in the lower left corner of the page. Under IDENTIFICATION NUMBER, fill in the boxes and corresponding circles with your exam version number found on the cover of your test booklet. If your exam version is 0, enter 00; if your exam version is 1, enter 11; and if your exam version is 2, enter 22.
