

Hello

I am writing concerning the rising cost of medication. My husband is taking a new drug for recurring prostate cancer, Zytiga. The monthly cost is $11,845.00 ! We just retired and do carry an approved prescription plan. This drug is considered a specialty and has a standard cost sharing instead of normal yearly deductible.

I would like to see this addressed at the Healthcare Cabinet meeting.

Thank you

Burton and Patricia Conway