

Changes in law – Risk Reduction Earned Credit (RREC)

In 2011, the Risk Reduction Earned Credit (RREC) program was established by law as an incentive to promote good behavior and program participation among prison inmates. Inmates may earn three to five days per month toward the reduction of their sentence. The Connecticut State Legislature subsequently amended the law to prohibit offenders of violent crimes from earning RREC (Public Act 13-3 and 15-216).

In 2018, two inmates, who were sentenced for multiple violent crimes, filed lawsuits against the Department of Corrections (Breton v. Commissioner of Correction (330 Conn. 462, 2018) and Grant v. Commissioner of Correction). The inmates claimed that their rights had been violated since the law had been applied retroactively and they lost credits and future earning potential. The Connecticut Supreme Court agreed with the inmates.

The following inmates will be allowed to recoup any lost credits and earn future credits:
