SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION POLICY AND REPORTING PROCEDURE

Sexual Harassment is a form of misconduct that undermines the integrity of the employment relationship. It is the policy of the State of Connecticut Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection ("DESPP") to provide its employees with a workplace that is free of sexual harassment. Regardless of whether the conduct results from maliciousness, thoughtlessness, or poor judgment, sexual harassment in the workplace is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Sexual Harassment is illegal and violates Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 US Code §2000e et. seq., as amended, as well as Connecticut General Statutes §46a-60(8). DESPP prohibits sexual harassment, in any form, by or against its employees and/or to visitors, vendors, or clients at our troop sites and/or administrative offices. Any employee who violates this policy statement will be subjected to discipline, up to and including, termination of employment. Any employee who potentially violates this policy statement will be counseled and any employee who was subjected to harassment will be apprised of her or his rights.

Any employee who believes that she or he is a victim of any form of illegal discrimination, including harassment based on pregnancy and/or sexual harassment, or any employee who witnesses or has knowledge of such impermissible conduct is urged to report it in accordance with the DESPP EEO/AA Policy Statement and §4.1.4 of the Administration & Operations Manual. An EEO investigation will be conducted promptly. EEO Complaints made against the DESPP Commissioner and/or the DESPP EEO/AA Office, will be automatically referred to the State of Connecticut Commission of Human Rights and Opportunities ("CCHRO") and if appropriate, investigation by the Department of Administrative Services ("DAS") under §46a-68(b). DESPP will also take appropriate action to protect employees who are retaliated against for reporting illegal employment discrimination, in accordance with the DESPP's Anti-Retaliation Policy Statement.
