Date: January 21, 2020

Subject: Increase in tuition fees for Basic Training Recruit Program

Sec. 7 – 294p of the General Statutes of Connecticut requires the “Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection in consultation with the Police Office Standards and Training Council to maintain and operate the Connecticut Police Academy to offer training for municipal police officer. The Department in consultation with the Police Officer Standards and Training Council shall fix tuition and fees for training, education programs and sessions and for such other purposes as the Commissioner of Emergency Services and Public protection deems necessary for the operation and support of the academy. Such fees shall be used solely for training and education purposes”.

Tuition and fees for new recruits attending the Basic Training program shall be increased from $2,000.00 per Recruit to $3,800 per Recruit.

In-service training fees will remain the same with no increase. Current in-service fees are:

- Class of one day or less = $75.00
- Class of two days to five = $200.00
- Class of six days to ten = $300.00

The increase in tuition for the Basic Training Program shall become effective on July 1, 2020.
