

Upcoming Professional Learning Opportunities!

Workshops

Summer 2015

CSDE Curriculum Institutes:

- Two (2) for ELA & Literacy (40 participants each)
- Two (2) for Mathematics (40 participants each)
- Cost: Free of charge to Connecticut Public School Districts
- Registration opens April 2015

Fall 2015

Meeting the Challenge: CT Core Standards for Educators of English Learners and Students with Disabilities

- Cost: Free of charge to Connecticut Public School District
- Registration opens August 2015

Online, On-Demand, Anywhere Professional Learning Courses

Spring 2015

Foundations of CCSS

A self-paced online course (free of charge) developed from Modules 1 & 2 of the Systems of Professional Learning

Grades K-5 ELA & Literacy Focus on the Instructional Shifts	Grades 6-12 ELA & Literacy Focus on the Instructional Shifts
Grades K-5 Mathematics Focus on Practice Standards	Grades 6-12 Mathematics Focus on Practice Standards
Grades K-5 ELA & Literacy Supporting all Students in Close Reading, Academic Language, and Text-based Discussion	Grades 6-12 ELA & Literacy Supporting all Students in Close Reading, Academic Language, and Text-based Discussion
Grades K-5 Mathematics Focus on the Content Standards	Grades 6-12 Mathematics Focus on Content Standards

Support for Educators of ELLs and Students with Disabilities

Using materials developed for “Meeting the Challenge: PD for Educators of ELLs and Students with Disabilities:” we are developing FIVE online courses, including:

- A foundational course
- Two courses specific to the needs of English Learners
- Two courses specific to the needs of students with disabilities
- Cost: Free of charge to Connecticut public school educators (district email address required)
- Registration opens September 2015

Fall 2015

CT Core Standards Curriculum Development

Using materials developed from summer Curriculum Institutes, this facilitated online course will provide participants with critical unit and lesson planning skills to fulfill the promise of the CT Core Standards.

- Cost: Free of charge to Connecticut public school educators (district email address required)
- Registration opens September 2015