

AT-RISK AFTERSCHOOL CARE CENTERS

Overview of Requirements

The at-risk afterschool meals component of the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) provides reimbursement for snacks and suppers served to children through age 18 who are participating in afterschool programs in eligible (at-risk) areas. The program provides funds to public and private nonprofit (federal tax-exempt) and for-profit organizations, and schools, for nutritious snacks and suppers served as part of organized programs of care, which are known to help reduce or prevent children's involvement in high risk behaviors.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

Organizations must meet the definition of at-risk afterschool care center as defined in the CACFP regulations at 7CFR§226.2. “At-risk afterschool care center” means a public or private nonprofit organization that is participating or is eligible to participate in the CACFP as an institution or as a sponsored facility, and that provides nonresidential child care to children after school through an approved afterschool care program located in an eligible area. Emergency shelters, as defined by the CACFP regulations, may participate as an at-risk afterschool care center without regard to location.

To be eligible for reimbursement, an afterschool care program must:

- be organized primarily to provide care for children after school during the regular school year;
- have organized, regularly scheduled activities in a structured and supervised environment;
- include education or enrichment activities; and
- be located in an eligible area (see “Area Eligibility” below).

In addition, the authorized capacity of the at-risk afterschool care center cannot be exceeded.

Organized athletic programs engaged in interscholastic or community level competitive sports are not eligible afterschool care programs.

AREA ELIGIBILITY

An eligible area is defined as the attendance area of an elementary, middle or high school in which at least 50 percent of the enrolled children are certified eligible for free or reduced-price school meals. Area eligible listings are based on the most recent October data and are updated annually by the Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE). Once established, area eligibility remains in effect for a period of five years. Current area eligibility information is available on the CSDE's Area Eligibility Web page.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR CHILDREN

At-risk snacks and at-risk suppers are reimbursable only if served to children who are participating in an approved afterschool care program, and who:

- are age 18 or under at the start of the school year; or
- meet the definition of persons with disabilities in 7CFR§226.2.

Institutions are not required to maintain income eligibility applications for individual children who receive only at-risk snack or at-risk supper.

COST OF AT-RISK SNACKS AND SUPPERS

All at-risk snacks and at-risk suppers served must be provided at no charge to participating children.

LICENSING

In accordance with 7CFR§226.6(d)(1), if federal, state (e.g., Department of Public Health) or local licensing or approval is not otherwise required, at-risk afterschool care centers must meet state or local health and safety standards.

FOR-PROFIT CENTERS

In any calendar month, a for-profit center must be eligible to participate in the CACFP as described in the definition of for-profit center in 7CFR§226.2. However, children who only receive at-risk snacks and/or at-risk suppers must not be considered in determining this eligibility.

REIMBURSEMENT

Reimbursement for at-risk snacks and at-risk suppers is provided at the free reimbursement rate currently in effect for CACFP centers. Information on the current reimbursement rate is available on the CSDE's CACFP Reimbursement Rates Web page.

LIMIT ON DAILY REIMBURSEMENTS

Only one at-risk snack and one at-risk supper per child per day may be claimed for reimbursement. An at-risk afterschool care center that provides care to a child under another component of the CACFP during the same day may not claim reimbursement for more than two meals and one snack or one meal and two snacks, per child per day, including the at-risk snack and at-risk supper.

At-risk snacks and at-risk suppers cannot be claimed during summer vacation, unless the at-risk afterschool care center is located in the attendance area of a school operating on a year-round calendar.

MEAL SERVICE

All participating at-risk afterschool care centers must serve snacks and suppers that meet the CACFP meal pattern requirements. Each child must receive all of the required meal pattern components for a complete reimbursable snack or supper. For more information on the CACFP meal pattern requirements, see the CACFP meal pattern and the CSDE's Nutrition Policies and Guidance for the CACFP.

The minimum meal pattern requirements for children ages 6-12 and 13-18 are the same; however, the CSDE recommends that larger portions be offered to older children based on their greater food energy requirements.

All at-risk snacks and at-risk suppers must be eaten by the children while they are in attendance at the center. Food cannot be sent home with students and claimed for reimbursement.

The supper meal can be served at any point during the afterschool program. Even though it is called “supper” when it is served after school, program staff can determine the best time to serve the meal. Supper can be served right when children walk through the door. At-risk snacks and at-risk suppers must be served after the end of the school day.

At least two hours must elapse between the snack and a supper meal, if the snack is served first. Two and a half hours must elapse between meal services when the supper meal is served before the snack.

CACFP MONITORING REQUIREMENT

Sponsoring organizations with more than one site are required to establish a monitoring process to effectively manage their programs, in accordance with 7CFR§226.16(d)(4). Monitoring requirements include the criteria below.

- The sponsor must review each prospective new site prior to starting the program.
- Each site must be monitored a minimum of three times a year. At least two of the monitoring visits must be unannounced and at least one of the unannounced visits must include a meal observation.
- No more than six months may elapse between monitoring visits.
- New sites must be monitored within the first four weeks of CACFP operation.
- Monitoring reports and corrective action must be maintained on file with all other CACFP records.

RECORDKEEPING REQUIREMENTS

At-risk afterschool care centers must maintain the following records:

- daily attendance rosters or sign-in sheets of enrolled participants;
- the number of at-risk snacks and/or at-risk suppers served to participating children for each snack and/or supper service;
- menus for each at-risk snack and at-risk supper service;
- cost records; and
- completed monitoring reports, if applicable, e.g., for more than one site.

7CFR§226.10(d) states the following: “All records to support the claim shall be retained for a period of three years after the date of submission of the final claim for the fiscal year to which they pertain, except that if audit findings have not been resolved, the records shall be retained beyond the end of the three year period as long as may be required for the resolution of the issues raised by the audit. All accounts and records pertaining to the Program shall be made available, upon request, to representatives of the State agency, of the Department [of Agriculture], and of the U.S. General accounting Office for audit or review, at a reasonable time and place.”

TRAINING REQUIREMENTS

Institutions must conduct annual CACFP and civil rights training for staff working with the At-Risk Afterschool Care Meals Program. A record of each training session must be maintained and include the date, location, agenda topics and a sign-in sheet of all participants who attended the training.

NONPROFIT FOOD SERVICE OPERATION

Each institution must maintain a nonprofit food service operation, principally for the benefit of enrolled participants. This does not mean that the institution must operate at a loss or break-even status; however, it does mean that any excess funds must be used exclusively in the food service operation.
