

2024 CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS

IMPORTANT: DUE DATE HAS CHANGED

For compliance with 2024 Continuing Education (CE), all courses must be completed during the CE Cycle of May 1, 2022, to January 31, 2024.

REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFIED AND PROVISIONAL LICENSED APPRAISERS

28 HOURS OF CONTINUING EDUCATION DUE:

The 28 hours must include 1 seven (7) hour Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) course taught by a Certified USPAP Instructor and a CT Real Estate Appraisal Law with Supervisory and Provisional Education course.

The CT Appraisal Law course is now only three (3) hours. The remaining hours must be credit hours approved by the Connecticut Real Estate Appraisal Commission (CREAC).

IMPORTANT: Successful completion of fifteen (15) hours of USPAP cannot be used in place of the seven (7) hour USPAP. The seven (7) hour USPAP is the one that is mandatory. The fifteen (15) hour course can be used as an elective.

IMPORTANT: If you received your license via reciprocity, you still must comply with Connecticut's CE requirements. This includes the CT Appraisal Law course. The twenty-eight (28) hours must be completed during our CE cycle.
