Application for Return to Practice from Emeritus Status

If an architect emeritus wishes to return to the active practice of architecture, he or she may do so by submitting the following:

1. Current renewal application form and the renewal fee.
2. Documentation of completing the Continuing Education Hours (C.E.H.) for the lesser of the accumulated C.E. requirements since being granted architect emeritus status or thirty-six (36) C.E.H.
3. The required C.E.H. shall be completed within the three (3) years prior to applying for active practice of architecture.
4. A completed form with the applicable fee will restore the license to the current renewal year. Checks or money orders should be made payable to "Treasurer, State of Connecticut."
5. Return this completed application and fee to the above address.
