The screenshot shows a mobile application interface with a blue header bar containing a menu icon on the left and a back arrow on the right. Below the header, the date "Tuesday, September 10, 2019" and the name "JULIET MONTGOMERY" are displayed. A prompt "Please select the service you are providing" is followed by a dropdown menu with a blurred selection. A white card titled "START VISIT" features a clock icon, the text "Service: [blurred]", and "Clock-In: 04:44 PM". Below this, the question "Are you sure you want to start the visit?" is shown, with two blue buttons: "NO" and "YES". The "YES" button is highlighted with a red border.
