

Who did we talk to...

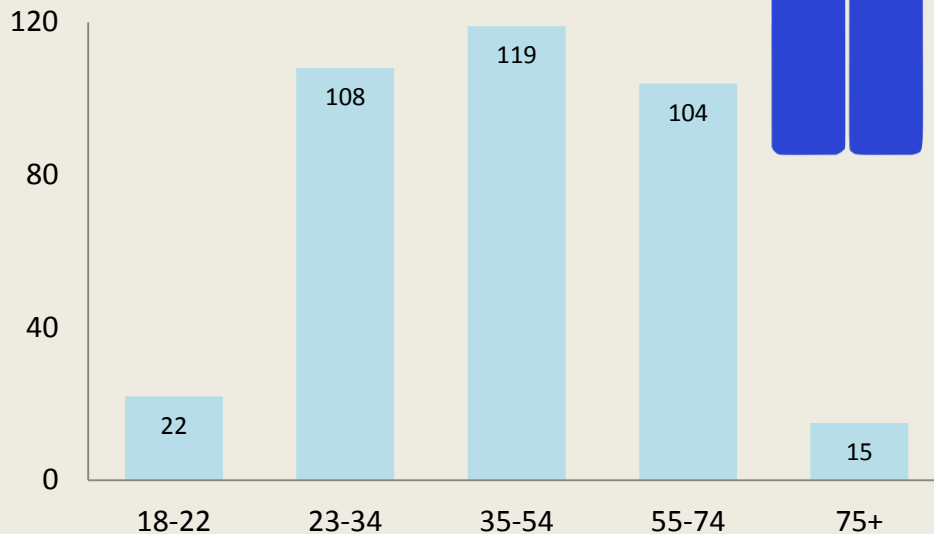

During FY2016-2017, DDS participated in a national survey about the people we serve. During the FY DDS served about 10,000 individuals, but only 368 people participated in the survey. Here is the information about the individuals that completed the survey.

45% of individuals are working!

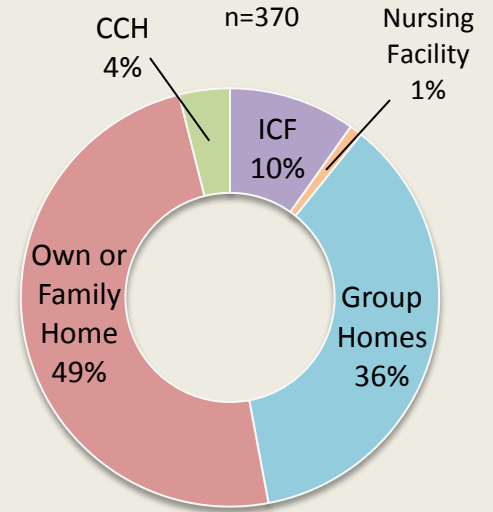

59%
Male

41%
Female

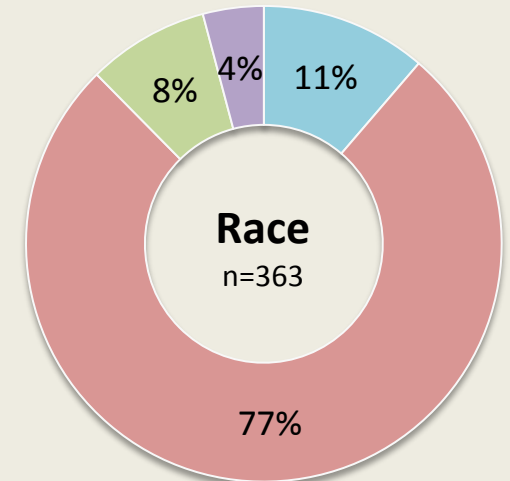

Age n=368

Residence

Black/AA White
Hispanic Latino Other

*Other Race includes 2 or more and Asian.

Department of Developmental Services wants to ensure people are included in their community, have meaningful relationships, know their rights, and feel respected.

In a 2017 survey of 368 people:

Community Inclusion

- Able to go out for errands in past month: 94%
- Able to go do things you like: 86%
- Able to go out for entertainment in past month: 82%
- Able to go to religious service or spiritual practice in past month: 36%

Relationships

- Has friends and can see them when you want to: 79%
- Often feels lonely: 10%
- Have someone to go to for help or if scared: 93%

Rights and Respect

- Has a key to the home: 45%
- Your name on lease: 10%
- Staff treated you with respect: 93%

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals to feel supported in their Home, place of Employment, and through Services Received

In a 2017 survey of 368 people:

Home

- 90% like the home or where living.

Employment

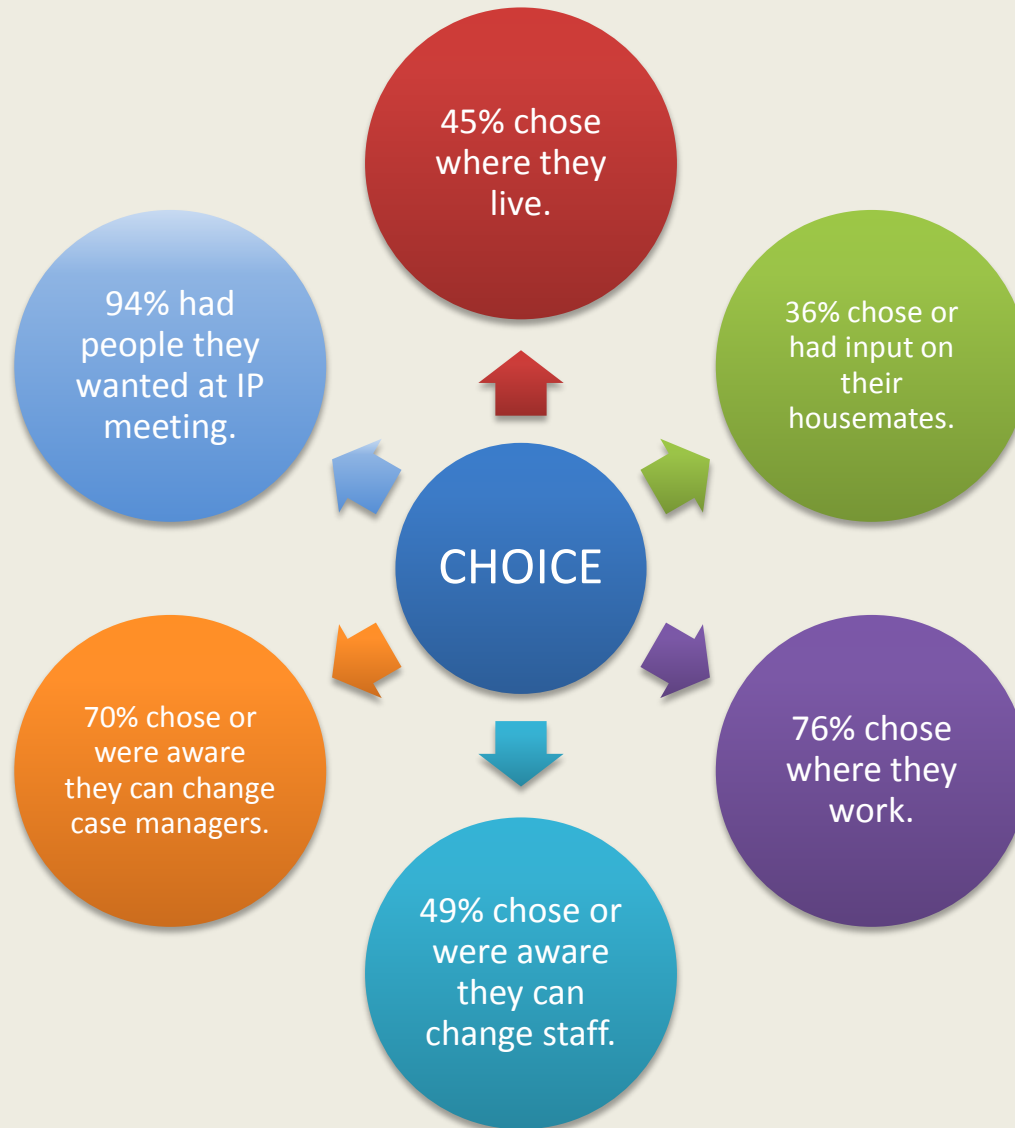

- 91% have a job in the community and likes job.

Services

- 93% feel services and support help live a good life.

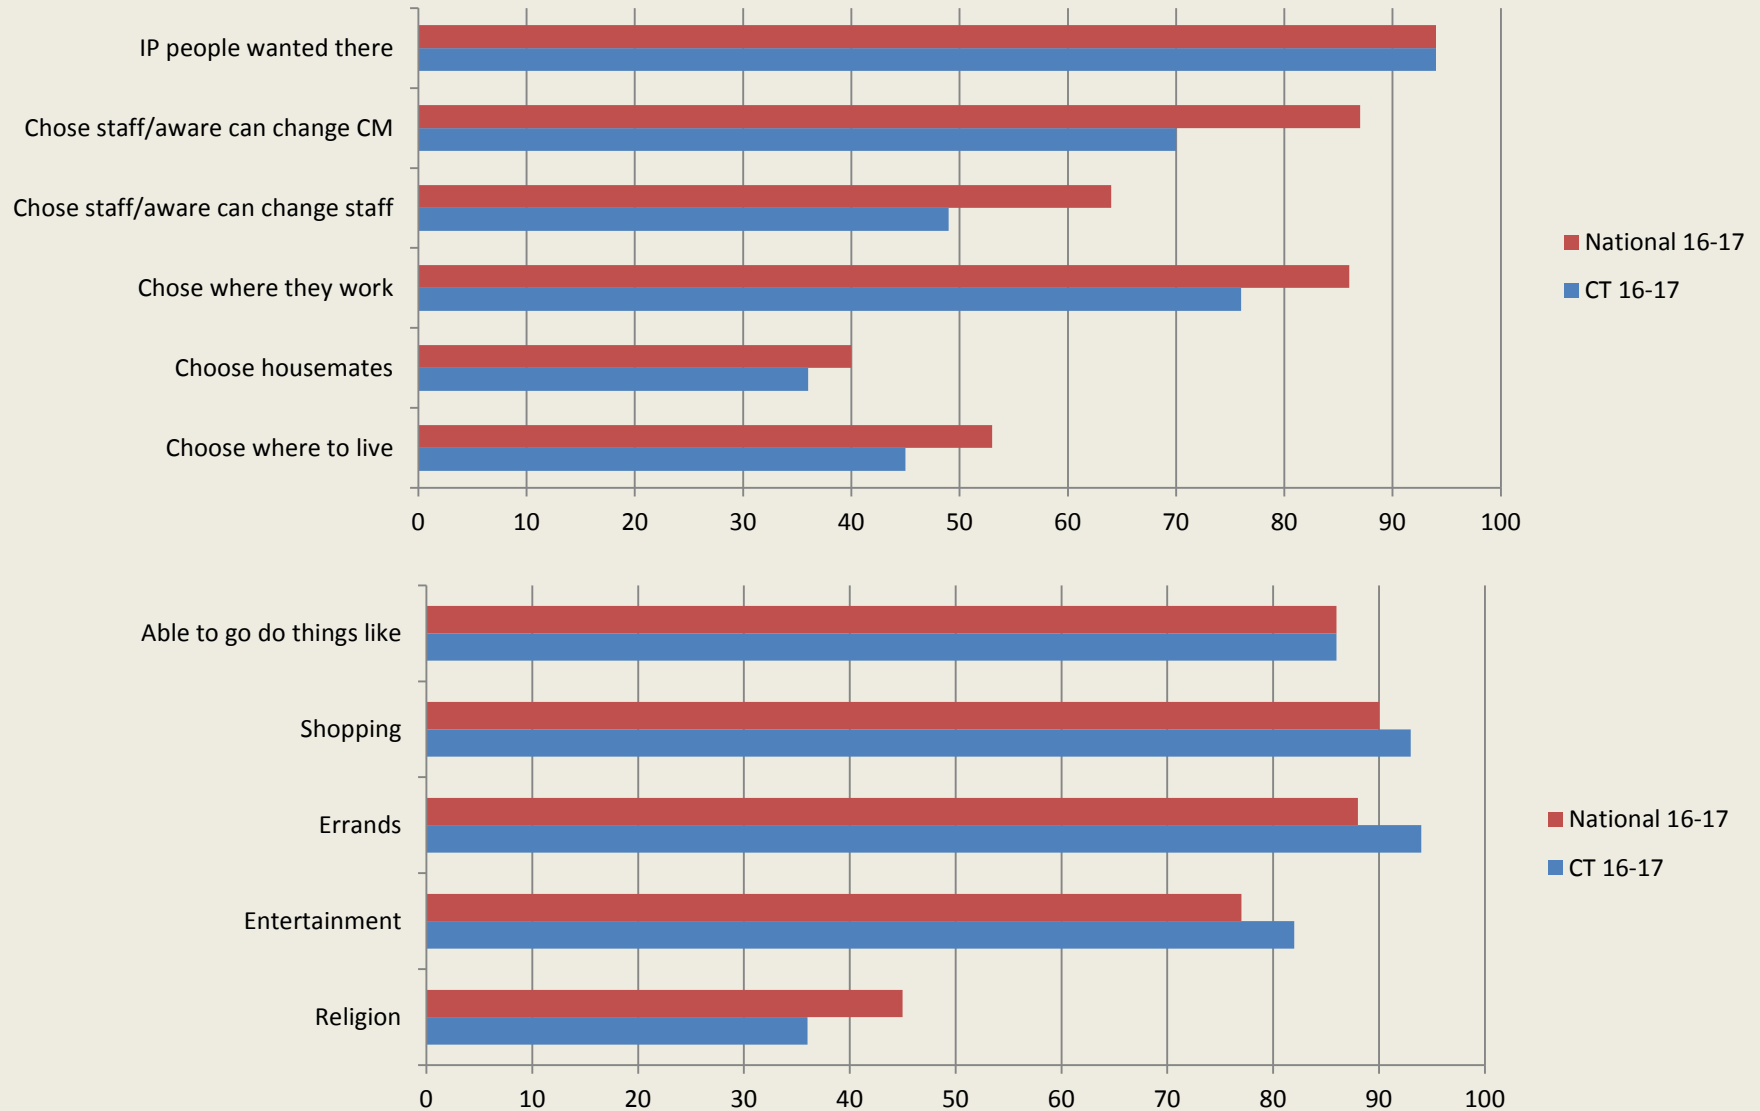

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals choice

In a 2017 survey of 368 people:

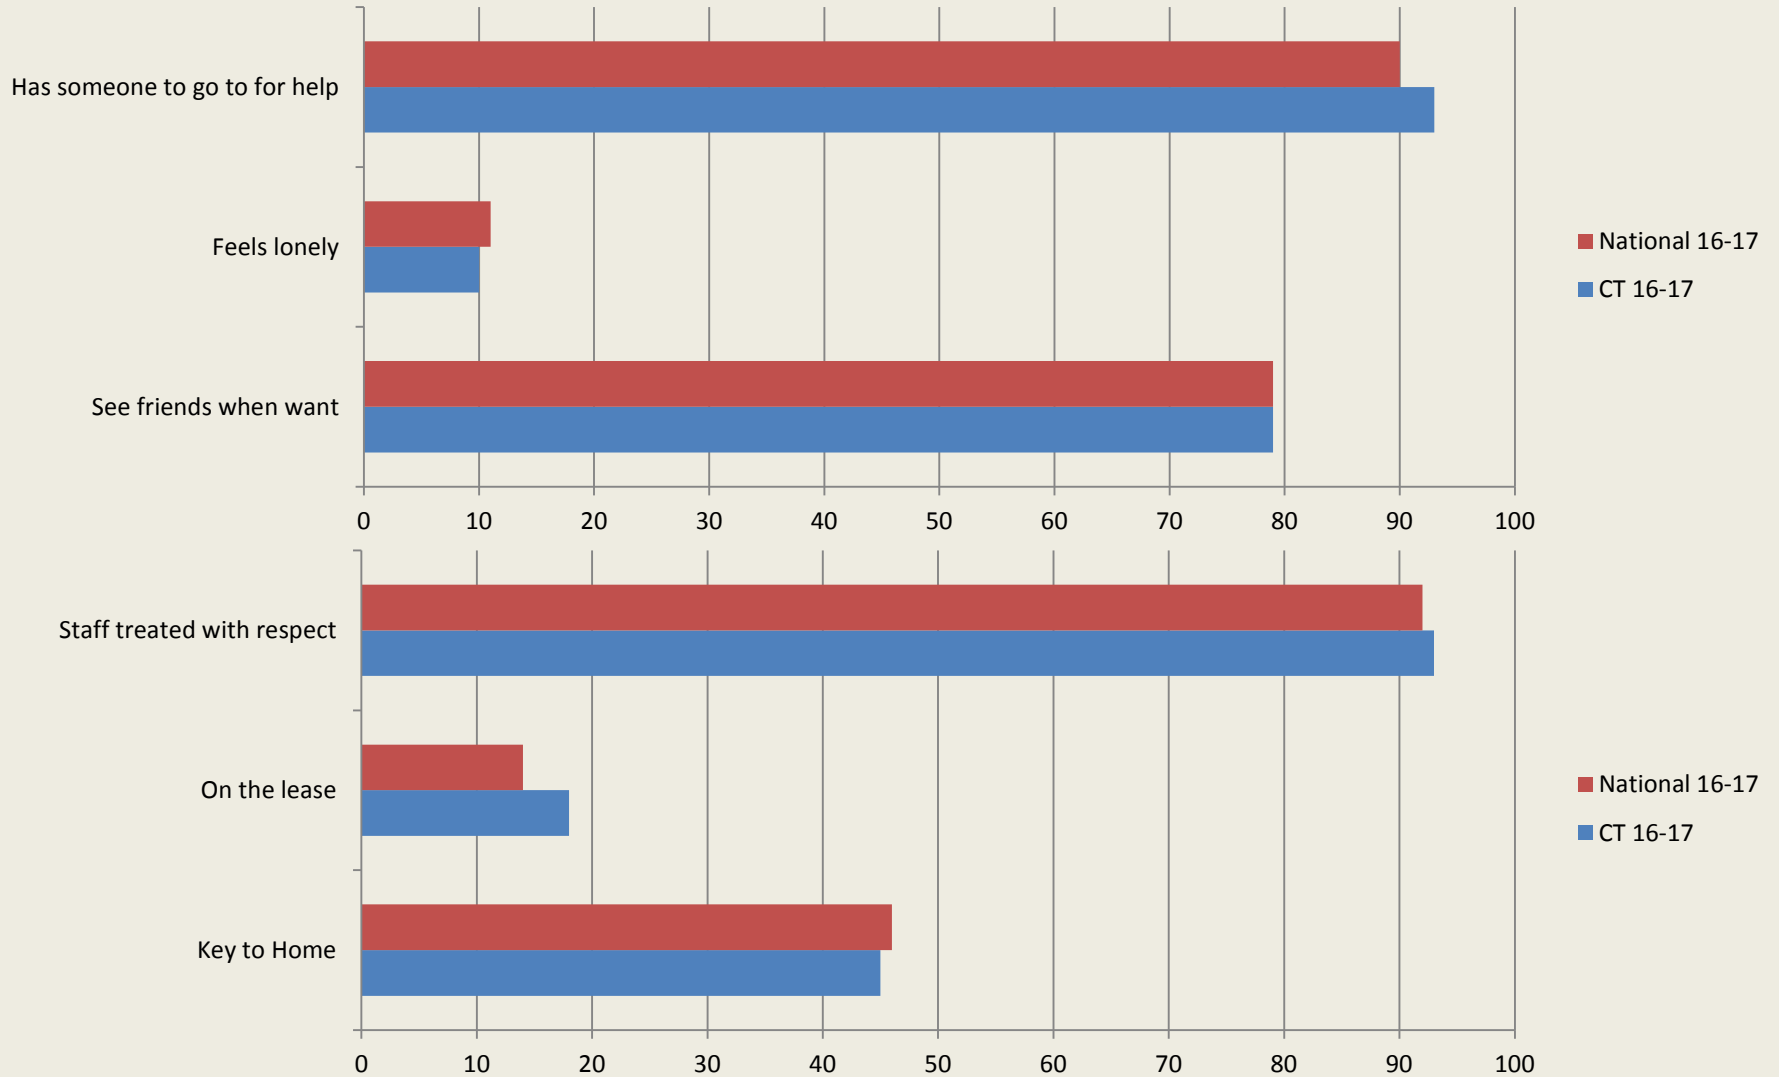

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals choice

In a 2017 survey of 368 people compared to a national sample:

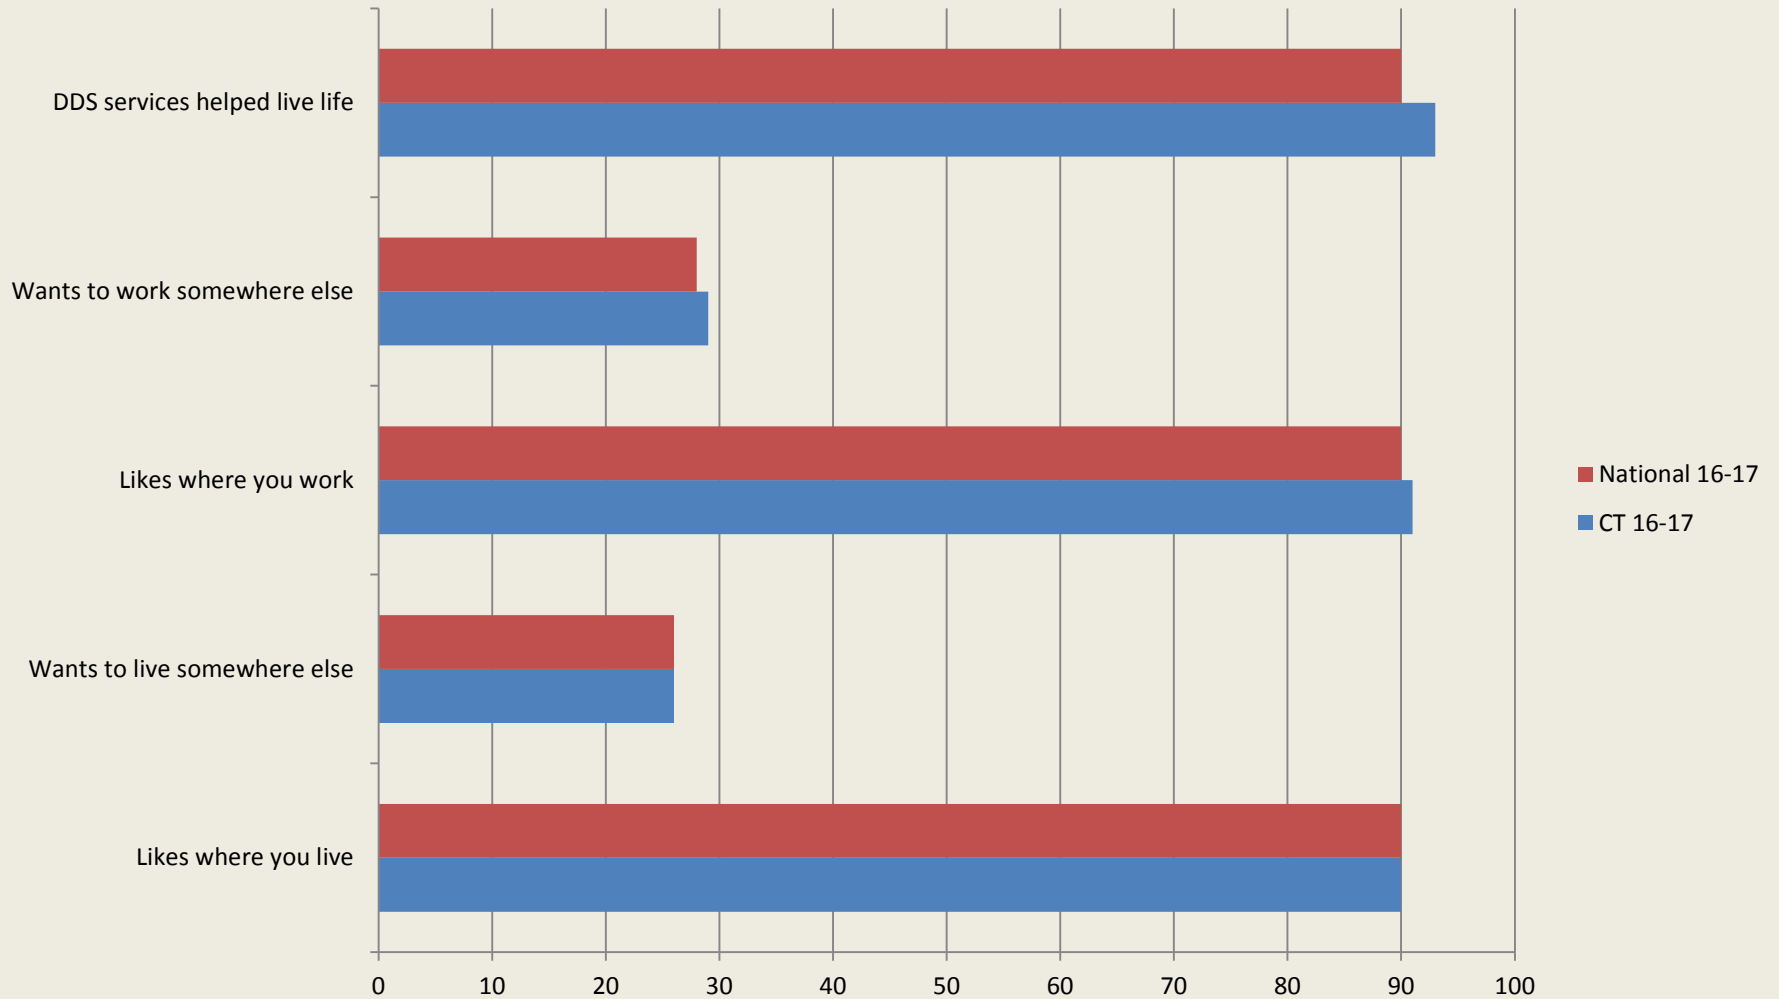

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals choice

In a 2017 survey of 368 people compared to a national sample:

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals choice

In a 2017 survey of 368 people compared to a national sample:

Department of Developmental Services strives to support individuals choice

In a 2017 survey of 368 people compared to a national sample:

