APPLICATION: Allied Transport, LLC

HEARING ASSIGNED: JANUARY 28, 2019 at 10:00 AM

LOCATION: Department of Transportation
2800 Berlin Turnpike
Newington, Connecticut
Conference Room A

The records of the Department of Transportation, Regulatory and Compliance Unit (department) indicate you are the holder of Permit No. 3636. The records of the department further indicate that you are in violation of the following Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) and/or Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies (RCSA), CGS Section 13b-103 (Failure to maintain Headquarters and Failure to maintain a Contract with Veyo), as amended, by violating the terms of the Permit which require the Permit holder to comply with all pertinent motor vehicle laws and other statutes, and/or rules, regulations and orders of the department.

More specifically:

1. It has come to the department's attention that Allied Transport LLC has authority to operate a government livery motor vehicle, with a passenger seating capacity of eleven (11) passengers or less in government livery service by virtue of a contract with Veyo from a headquarters in Bridgeport and the mailing address and business address are not valid.
2. As a result of this finding, a headquarters check was requested for Allied Transport, LLC on November 4, 2019, which shows your business is no longer at this location. This is a direct violation of the RCSA Section 16-325-2 (Transfer of Permit), Section 16-325-3 (Notice of Change of Address), Section 16-325-4 (Change of location outside city/town) and Section 16-325-5 (Information and records available to Authority).

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Section 13b-103(c), as amended, you are hereby directed to appear at the office of the Department of Transportation, 2800 Berlin Turnpike,

Newington, Connecticut 06111, Hearing Room No. A for a show cause hearing as to why this Permit should not be revoked or suspended and/or a civil penalty assessed for failure to comply with the applicable provisions of the Connecticut General Statutes and Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, as stated above.

Pursuant to Section 4-177a of the Connecticut General Statutes, any person may request party status, if such person has submitted a written petition to the agency and mailed copies to all parties, at least five (5) days before the date of the hearing and the petition states facts that demonstrate that the petitioner's legal rights, duties or privileges shall be specifically affected by the agency's decision in the contested case.

In addition, any person may request intervenor status if such person has submitted a written petition to the agency and mailed copies to all parties, at least five (5) days before the date of the hearing and the petition states facts that demonstrate that the petitioner's participation is in the interests of justice and will not impair the orderly conduct of the proceedings.

All petitions for party or intervenor status must be submitted in written form and received by this department no later than five (5) days prior to the date of hearing. Otherwise, such requested status shall be subject to denial. The five-day requirement may be waived at any time before or after the commencement of the hearing on a showing of GOOD CAUSE. Copies of any requests for party or intervenor status must be mailed to the applicant and to all known parties.

An original and FOUR (4) COPIES of all prepared documents and exhibits intended to be introduced as evidence in this matter by the applicant, party, or intervenor must be filed with the department no less than SEVEN (7) DAYS prior to the date of hearing. All filings must be mailed to:
