The records of the Department of Transportation (department) indicate that you are the holder of Household Goods Carrier Certificate No. HG1799. The records of the department further indicate that you are in violation of the following Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) and/or Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies (RCSA) as amended:

- CGS, Section 13b-392 (Formerly Sec. 16-286): Considerations for granting certificate: suitability.
- CGS, Section 13b-410c(b) (Formerly Sec. 16-288): Intrastate household goods carrier certificate. Intrastate motor contract carrier permit. Application. Fee. Regulations re annual fee for filing proof of insurance.
- CGS, Section 13b-410 (Formerly Sec. 16-304): Jurisdiction of Commissioner. Penalties.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F22: Identification stamp.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F23: Application for identification stamps.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F24: List of vehicles operated.

The alleged incident at question violates the terms of the certificate which requires the certificate holder to comply with all pertinent motor vehicle laws and other statutes, and/or rules, regulations, and orders of the department.

More specifically, on January 3rd, 2023, the department received an annual household goods intrastate mover application and a check payable for seventeen dollars and fifty cents from Bivelacque Logistics, LLC. Two days later the check was returned to the department as a "bad check" by the bank. The Regulatory and Compliance Unit made multiple attempts to contact the certificate holder in the subsequent days and discovered that the contact information on file was invalid. After investigating the alleged incident, the department has determined that this certificate is out of compliance and the findings of the investigation give the department cause to challenge the suitability of the management for this certificate.

As a result, you are subject to a hearing and potential penalties pursuant to CGS 13b-410 and 13b-414. Your certificate is also subject to a possible revocation pursuant to CGS 13b-407.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statute Section 4-182, as amended, you are hereby directed to appear at a telephone hearing to afford you an opportunity to show cause as to why this certificate should not be revoked, suspended and/or a civil penalty imposed for failure to comply with the applicable provisions of the Connecticut General Statutes and Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, as stated above.

Please call 1-866-617-1525 and enter participant code 95750880 to attend the hearing at the time and date specified in this notice. If you have any problems accessing the hearing, please call me 860-594-2864.

Please accept the outlook invite or send me a conformation email so I know that you plan to attend the hearing.

Dated at Newington, Connecticut on this 8th day of February 2023.
