The records of the Department of Transportation (Department) indicate that you are the holder of Household Goods Carrier Certificate No. HG1772. The records of the department further indicate that you are in violation of the following Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) and/or Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies (RCSA) as amended:

- CGS, Section 13b-392 (Formerly Sec. 16-286): Considerations for granting certificate: suitability.
- CGS, Section 13b-395 (Formerly Sec. 16-289): Change in rates.
- CGS, Section 13b-410c(b) (Formerly Sec. 16-288): Intrastate household goods carrier certificate. Intrastate motor contract carrier permit. Application. Fee. Regulations re annual fee for filing proof of insurance.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F3: Change of Address.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F4: Change of Headquarters.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F22: Identification Stamp.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F23: Application for Identification Stamps.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F24: List of vehicles operated.

The alleged incident at question violates the terms of the certificate which requires the certificate holder to comply with all pertinent motor vehicle laws and other statutes, and/or rules, regulations, and orders of the department.

More specifically, on September 20, 2023, the department received a complaint from Stacey Green regarding damage that was done to her property and that some items were left behind during the move that took place on or about August 31, 2023. After investigating the alleged incident, the department determined that this certificate is out of compliance, and the investigation findings give the department cause to challenge the suitability of the management of this certificate.

As a result, you are subject to a hearing and potential penalties pursuant to CGS 13b-410 and 13b-414. Your certificate is also subject to a possible revocation pursuant to CGS 13b-407.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statute Section 4-182, as amended, you are hereby directed to appear at a telephone citation hearing on February 6, 2024, at 10:00 AM to afford you an opportunity to show cause as to why this certificate should not be revoked, suspended and/or a civil penalty imposed for failure to comply with the applicable provisions of the Connecticut General Statutes and Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, as stated above.

Please call 1-866-617-1525 and enter participant code 95750880 to attend the hearing at the time and date specified in this notice. If you have any problems accessing the hearing, please call me 860-594-2864.

Please accept the outlook invite or send me a conformation email so I know that you plan to attend the hearing.

Dated at Newington, Connecticut on this 9th day of January 2023.
