Request for Letters of Interest

Certified Public Accounting for MTA/MNRR Auditing Services

The Connecticut Department of Transportation (Department) is seeking to retain one (1) Certified Public Accounting firm. The firm will be retained to audit, review and analyze the complex cost accounting system of the Metro North Railroad. This system is specified in the Amended and Restated Service Agreement (ARSA) between the State of Connecticut, the State of New York, and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA). The firm will be utilized to provide contract monitoring, compliance, and verification services to ensure charges by MTA/Metro-North Railroad are consistent with the financial terms of the ARSA. These services include, but are not limited to, the analysis and verification of monthly transactions inclusive of the resolution of any questioned costs, the verification and analysis of the amounts, allocators, allocation methodologies, costing principals and costing standards included in the annual "deficit model" and resultant final calendar year billings, and the review, verification and annual reporting related to the annual Inventory Deposit invoice and quarterly Administrative Asset invoicing. This assignment is considered a high complexity for volume consideration.

Firm's areas of expertise must include performing audits in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards.

This contract will cover audits for calendar years 2024, 2025, 2026 and 2027. The value of this contract is estimated to be $5.8 million over four years and is anticipated to utilize a cost-plus fixed fee payment method.

Firms responding to this request should be of adequate size and sufficiently staffed and experienced to perform this assignment and will be required to provide the necessary staffing upon execution of the contract.

If your firm would like to be considered for this assignment, your submittal should consist of a letter of interest limited to one (1) page, a Department Form CSO 255 (rev. June 2022) and a maximum of five (5) resumes which are limited to two (2) pages each. One of the resumes must be that of the proposed Project Manager in charge of the work, as well as the assurance that he/she will be available for work when required. (The CSO 255 form can be found online at <https://portal.ct.gov/DOT/Consultant-Selection/Consultant-Selection-Information>.)

Electronic Submittal – A .pdf of your CSO 255 must be emailed to DOT.CSOSubmittals@ct.gov by 3:00 p.m. on or before January 9, 2024 and must be no larger than 10 MB in size. The file name should be in the following format: CSO#2442.FirmName. You will receive a confirmation email by 4:00 p.m. on the due date, once your submittal has been accepted. Please retain proof of sending your submission before the due date/time, in the unlikely event that your email is not received. If you do not receive a confirmation by the time specified above, please contact the Consultant Selection Office at 860-594-3346 or at the email listed above. Firms who are shortlisted based on their CSO 255 submittal, will be notified by the Consultant Selection Office of the time, date and format of their selection interview. A final selection is anticipated by March 2024.

Your CSO 255 submittal should identify the following: your proposed current staff and their qualifications, experience, and availability to perform the required services. Your submittal will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- (1) Proposed staff and qualifications, including licensure, and continuing professional education of assigned staff. Weighted scoring value = 30%

- (2) Experience in performing surveys and analyzing the operation & budgets for a transportation commuter service. Weighted scoring value = 15%
- (3) Experience in Performing Contract or Compliance Audits. Weighted scoring value = 15%
- (4) Auditing and consulting experience of Railroad operations and other related areas. Weighted scoring value = 15%
- (5) Firm's overall resources and ability to complete tasks considering Peer Review and Letter of Comments. Weighted scoring value = 25%

The Certification, Licensure and Continuing Professional Education of the proposed Professional personnel must also be included.

You are advised that a Small Business Enterprise (SBE) set-aside requirement applies to this contract. The set-aside requirement will be no less than ten percent (10%) of the agreement value. Within the letter-of-interest submittal, you must include the designated certified SBE sub-consultant(s) you plan to use. To be eligible for SBE credit, the sub-consultant(s) must be certified by the Connecticut Department of Administrative Services. All firms are advised that the prime consultant must perform most of the work with employees of the firm. Joint venturing will not be allowed.

Do not send additional documentation other than what is requested. The Consultant Selection Panel may reject your submittal, and your firm may not be considered for this project if you provide additional documentation such as corporate brochures, background information, and histories.

In accordance with the Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) Section 9-612(f), as amended by Public Act 21-76, any principal of a state contractor or prospective state contractor submitting a bid or proposal for a state contract are directed to the State Elections Enforcement Commission's Notice to Executive Branch State Contractors and Prospective State Contractors of Campaign Contribution and Solicitation Limitations. The Notice is hereby made a part of this solicitation. Additionally, any principal of a state contractor or prospective state contractor is required to complete a Campaign Contribution Certification with its proposal.

Please note that Connecticut General Statutes Section 4-252, Section 4-252a, and Section 4a-81 were amended by Public Act 21-76 to no longer require the certifications and affidavits previously required from state contractors and prospective state contractors as part of the bidding, proposal or contracting process. Instead, the requirements for these above-referenced sections are described below.

Notice of Representation Requirements of Connecticut General Statutes Section 4-252: The official or employee of such state agency or quasi-public agency who is authorized to execute state contracts shall represent that the selection of the most qualified or highest ranked person, firm or corporation was not the result of collusion, the giving of a gift or the promise of a gift, compensation, fraud or inappropriate influence from any person.

Any principal or key personnel of the person, firm or corporation submitting a bid or proposal for a large state contract shall, upon execution of such contract, make the following representations in the resulting contract: (1) That no gifts were made by (A) such person, firm, corporation, (B) any principals and key personnel of the person, firm or corporation, who participate substantially in preparing bids, proposals or negotiating state contracts, or (C) any agent of such person, firm, corporation or principals and key personnel, who participates substantially in preparing bids, proposals or negotiating state contracts, to (i) any public official or state employee of the state agency or quasi-public agency soliciting bids or proposals for state contracts, who participates substantially in the preparation of bid solicitations or requests for proposals for state contracts or the negotiation or award of state contracts, or (ii) any public official or state employee of any other state agency, who has supervisory or appointing authority over such state agency or quasi-public agency; (2) That no such principals and key personnel of the person, firm or corporation, or agent of such person, firm or corporation or principals and key personnel, knows of any action by the person, firm or corporation to circumvent such prohibition on gifts by providing for any other principals and key personnel, official, employee or agent of the person, firm or corporation to provide a gift to any such public official or state employee; and (3) That the person, firm or corporation is submitting bids or proposals without fraud or collusion with any person.

Notice of Certification Requirements of Connecticut General Statutes Section 4-252a: (a) For purposes of this section, "state agency" and "quasi-public agency" have the same meanings as provided in section 1-79, "large state contract" has the same meaning as provided in section 4-250 and "entity" means any corporation, general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, joint venture, nonprofit organization or other business organization whose principal place of business is located outside of the United States, but excludes any United States subsidiary of a foreign corporation. (b) No state agency or quasi-public agency shall enter into any large state contract, or amend or renew any such contract with any entity unless such contract contains a certification that such entity has not made a direct investment of twenty million dollars or more in the energy sector of Iran on or after October 1, 2013, as described in Section 202 of the Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability and Divestment Act of 2010, and has not increased or renewed such investment on or after said date.

Notice of Representation Requirements of Connecticut General Statutes Section 4a-81: (b) (1) Each contract described in subsection (a) of this section shall include a representation whether any consulting agreement has been entered into in connection with any such contract. Such representation shall be required if any duties of the consultant included communications concerning business of a state or quasi-public agency, whether or not direct contact with a state agency, state or public official or state employee was expected or made. As used in this section, "consulting agreement" means any written or oral agreement to retain the services, for a fee, of a consultant for the purposes of (A) providing counsel to a contractor, vendor, consultant or other entity seeking to conduct, or conducting, business with the state, (B) contacting, whether in writing or orally, any executive, judicial, or administrative office of the state, including any department, institution, bureau, board, commission, authority, official or employee for the purpose of solicitation, dispute resolution, introduction, requests for information, or (C) any other similar activity related to such contracts. "Consulting agreement" does not include any agreements entered into with a consultant who is registered under the provisions of chapter 10 as of the date such contract is executed in accordance with the provisions of this section. (2) Such representation shall be sworn as true to the best knowledge and belief of the person signing the contract and shall be subject to the penalties of false statement. (3) Such representation shall include the following information for each consulting agreement listed: The name of the consultant, the consultant's firm, the basic terms of the consulting agreement, a brief description of the services provided, and an indication as to whether the consultant is a former state employee or public official. If the consultant is a former state employee or public official, such representation shall indicate his or her former agency and the date such employment terminated.

Prior to the negotiation process, the selected firms will be required to have a Department-approved audit as well as current corporate registration with the Secretary of State (partnerships excluded). The selected firms will also be required to maintain insurance coverage from a firm approved to do business in the State of Connecticut. Proof of coverage must be submitted on a form acceptable to the State prior to the start of negotiations.

The Department, in its sole discretion, reserves the right to cancel this solicitation and terminate the process to retain consultant services, and is under no obligation to contract for the services specified herein.

The Department reserves the right to add other assignments of a similar nature to this selection process should the need arise prior to the interview phase.

All inquiries regarding this request for letters of interest shall be directed to Amie Maines of the Consultant Selection Office at (860) 594-3346 or amie.maines@ct.gov.
