

NEWINGTON, Conn. – The Connecticut Public Transportation Commission (CPTC) will hold a public hearing in Old Saybrook on (Tuesday, June 3) to give citizens and local officials in that area of the state an opportunity to voice their views on public transportation services.

The hearing will take place at 7:30 p.m. at the Old Saybrook Town Hall, 302 Main Street, Old Saybrook, Connecticut.

This is one of a series of four public hearings being held this spring throughout the state in metropolitan areas designated by the CPTC. These hearings will enable members of the CPTC to gain firsthand information and input from the public concerning existing and proposed public transportation services within Connecticut.

The CPTC is particularly interested in receiving comments from public officials and private citizens on such issues as:

1. Extension of Shore Line East Service
2. Parking Capacity at Shore Line East Stations
3. Adequacy of Intercity Bus Connections
4. Estuary Transit District
5. Other transit topics of interest to the public.
